MRS. LESTER CALVIN PAYNE
the former Miss Elizabeth Whitney Herndon

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marraige of Miss Elizabeth Whitney Herndon to Lester Calvin Payne took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock on the lawn of the Herndon home on Forest Street in Brookneal.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson Herndon, Jr., of Brookneal, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Board Payne of Route 1, Altavista.

The Reverend Alexander Curry Yates, minister of Gum Spring United Methodist Church performed the double - ring ceremony before an alter of emerald and natural greens. The candlelabra, holding lighted tapers, was flanked by arrangements of gladioli, pom poms, fuji mums and baby's breath.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Millard Rice, organist, and Mrs. Glenn Shutt, soloist, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was escorted and given in marraige by her father. She wore a gown fashioned of embroidered silk organza over taffeta. The empire bodice was finished with a high neckline and Victorian bracelet sleeves. The high-rise waistline was encircled with a satin cumberbund, and edged with Venetian lace. She wore a finger-tip veil of silk illusion, attached to a profile headpiece of lace, and she carried a family prayerbook centered with a white orchid, surrounded by stephanotis.

Miss Carolyn Virginia Herndon of Brookneal, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Gary Wynn Colbert of Richmond, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. They wore floor-length floral gowns with empire waistlines. They were accented with turquoise velvet ribbon. They carried boquets of ivy and boswood centered with a chartreuse cymbidium orchid.

Bridesmaids were Miss Julie Ford Payne of Altivista, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Virginia Godwin Lusardi of Brookneal and Miss Linda Jo Moses of Appomattox, cousins of the bride; Miss Patricia Purcell of Lynchburg, Miss Dyan Jamary of Mooresville, North Carolina, and Miss Donna Abbitt Conant of Arlington. They wore dresses similar to the honor attendants with rose accents and carried boquets of ivy and boxwood.

Flower girls were Miss Traci Ann Paulette of Appomattox and Miss Laur Rachel Reid of Danville, cousins of the bride. They wore long white dresses styled similar to the brides-maids. Eric Clayton Payne of Altavista, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Clayton Board Payne was his son's best man. Ushers were Willard Neal Payne and Roy George Payne of Hurt, Herbert Board Payne, Robert Franklin Payne, and Kenneth Lee Payne of Altavista, brothers of the groom; William Robertson Herndon III, Harold Elliott Davis, Jr., and Dale Andrew Rutledge all of Brookneal.

The bride's mother was attired in blue and wore a corsage of white gardenias.

Mrs. Kenneth Conner, Sr., of Brookneal served as mistress of ceremonies, assisted by Mrs. Fred Bowe, Jr., also of Brookneal.

Immediatly following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception on the lawn of their home.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of William Campbell High School and Ferrum Junior College.

After a Southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Auburn, Alabama where they will both be students at Auburn University.
